PENTAX Student Program

Offer valid April 1, 2008 – June 30, 2008

PENTAX has always taken pride in producing cameras that meet the needs of student photographers. Our equipment has earned a reputation of value and quality thanks to its ease-of-use, unique and advanced features and functions, durability, exceptional lenses, and affordability. Now, we would like to make these products even more reasonable by offering them to students and educators at significant savings. This offer is exclusive to photography educators and full-time students taking a photography class at accredited high schools, colleges and universities.

To qualify for these significant savings:

- Purchase your equipment from an authorized PENTAX dealer.
- Complete the attached Student Program form and send your original purchase receipt, original UPC and other required materials.
- Students: Provide enrollment certification showing enrollment in a photography class (class schedule or copy of registration) and a copy of your current student identification.
- Educators: Submit a copy of course curriculum or outline for your photography class and a copy of your current faculty identification.

Terms and Conditions

This offer is valid only to full-time photography educators and full-time students taking photography courses at accredited institutions (high schools, colleges and universities). Due to the significant discounts offered, all requirements listed must be met and approved by PENTAX Imaging Company. The PENTAX Student Program cannot be combined with any other offers. Current consumer promotions and rebates do not apply. Valid only on purchases made in the United States.
