THE 3POD QR HEAD INSTRUCTIONS.

Here's how to have a ball with the head:

1. Join the QR Module on Monopod, Light Stand, Super Clamp or other choice of support. There is a 3/8" bolt protruding from the device.

There is a 3/8" tap in the base of the module, as well as a bushing that can convert the 3/8" tap to a 1/4"x20, if necessary.

2. Remove the Quick Release Plate from the head by opening the Quick Release Thumb Lever Lock (b) to loosen the grip on the plate. There are two safety positions for Lever Lock to aid in securing and removal of the camera from the Module.
3. Screw the 1/4"x20 bolt of the Quick Release Plate to the bottom of the imaging device you want to use on the support.

4. Insert the device with the plate so that the dovetail fits within the jaws of the Arca Swiss Quick Release grasp and close the Quick Release Thumb Lever Lock fully against the head.
5. The twin Bubble Levels act in tandem to assure horizontal and vertical alignment. Both are located on the Plate Platform for maximum efficiency in keeping it straight.
