

The FLASHPOINT Difference

U.S.A. Based Support & Repair.

IMAGINE. ILLUMINATE. CREATE.

Looking for the Godox Version?

You found it! Flashpoint is built by Godox. Same product.
Better value.

Flashpoint is Adorama's exclusive U.S. version of Godox gear, made in the same factory with the same components and full cross-compatibility across the X/R2 wireless system.

Why Choose Flashpoint Instead of Godox?

Identical engineering & performance (built by Godox)

U.S.A.-based support & repairs

Adorama-backed warranty

Fast domestic service—no overseas shipping

Better pricing & exclusive promotions
